

Concern for missing Sneinton man Neville Clifford

Concerns have been raised for the welfare of a 57-year-old Sneinton man who has been reported missing.

Neville Clifford was last seen on 12 October in the Sneinton area. He has a heart condition and does not have his medication with him.

He has links to Edinburgh and Skegness and police believe he may have travelled to either of these areas.

Mr Clifford is white and about 6ft tall. He has short, dark brown hair and wears glasses. He has a large build.

Anyone who has seen Mr Clifford or knows of his whereabouts should contact Nottinghamshire Police on 101 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.
