

Ellie wins Turkish Airlines competition

Ten-year-old Ellie Baker from Bathgate has been named the winner of Turkish Airlines' Draw the World competition which was run in partnership with Edinburgh Airport. Ellie drew a fantastic picture inspired by Dubai and has won free flights anywhere in the world for her family with Turkish Airlines.

Ellie, as well as two runners-up, will have their entries blown up and shown in the airport's foodcourt during construction work to create the new extension.

Ellie Baker and her family with Ahmet Serhat Sari, Turkish Airlines' General Manager for Edinburgh Airport, who presented the prize.
