

Five things you need to know today

Christmas light switch on in Corstorphine tonight – Calling all blood donors – Gone with the Wind – Tonight at Drummond CHS – Hot Dub Time Machine

Corstorphine Christmas Tree Switch On at 6.30pm.

“Come and join us on the village green beside Corstorphine Old Parish Church, Kirk Loan to welcome in the festive season with the lighting of the Corstorphine community Christmas tree and a visit from a special guest on his sleigh.”

Today you can give blood at Northfield Community Centre, Northfield Road, EH8 7PP

 The Cameo is screening Gone with the Wind on 9 December 2013. How fabulous to see this iconic movie on the big screen!

More details and get your tickets here.

The Winter Warmer Concert will take place on Wednesday 4th December at 5.45pm, to start at 6pm. Tickets are on sale from the school office

– Drummond CHS (@Drummond_CHS) November 21, 2013

Tonight at Summerhall there is the first of a series of Hot Dub Time Machine, all part of Edinburgh's Christmas festivities. Booking details here on Edinburgh's Christmas website but it seems that most Saturday events may already have been sold out – get on to the website or the Facebook page to find out more!

“All aboard Hot Dub Time Machine at Summerhall! DJ Tom Loud presents the world's first time-travelling dance party! Travel back in time to 1954, then boogie back to 2013, with a song for each year powered by YOUR dancing.

An international festival hit, Hot Dub Time Machine returns to Edinburgh after a huge sell-out run at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe.”

