

Look behind you! It's Peter Pan!

Peter Pan – The Swashbuckling Pantomime Adventure!

Edinburgh's favourite friends are heading to Neverland for another spectacular King's pantomime adventure! Join Allan Stewart, Andy Gray and Grant Stott as this enchanting tale, Peter Pan, is brought magically to life with stunning sets, amazing costumes, an abundance of comedy and stunning flying sequences.

But beware... Captain Hook is on the prowl with his henchman Smee... and Mrs Smee in this unmissable story that features crocodiles, lost boys, pirates and fairies!

Producing this year's pantomime for the King's Theatre is Michael Harrison, Managing Director of Qdos Entertainment's pantomime division and one of the country's most successful young producers to date. Michael is set to pull out all the stops in terms of lavish design and production values – ensuring that the panto plot is a mixture of mayhem, chaos and bursting at the seams with brand new comedy.

Michael, said:- “I am delighted to be working with Allan, Andy and Grant three pre-eminent figures in the world of pantomime. This unmissable production has got something for everyone and I am sure the production will delight audiences of all ages.”

Presented by Qdos Entertainment, the world's biggest pantomime producer, Peter Pan carries the King's Theatre's hallmark of value-for-money and quality entertainment for all ages. The King's Theatre pantomime is an Edinburgh Christmas tradition no family should miss.
