

Network Rail advises safety first on stairs and escalators

Network Rail have released a video which is designed to shock you a little into being more careful in and around their stations. Watch some of the spills here – then slow down and hold the handrail!

Then there are the embarrassing slip ups.....