

Adam Ant to appear at The Liquid Room this spring

After Adam's recent 'Sell Out' show at London's Roundhouse and successful 44 date tour of the USA, he has decided to embark on a 13 date UK tour during Spring 2014

In 2008, Adam was presented with the 'Q Music Icon Award' placing him alongside fellow recipients Sir Paul McCartney and Bryan Ferry. This rekindled recognition resulted in a series of low key gigs in 2010 which enabled him to select a new band and to perform several sell-out shows in London.

In 2011, the new incarnation, Adam Ant and The Good, the Mad and the Lovely Posse, performed at the Hard Rock Calling in London's Hyde Park and over the past year has continued playing live to over 250,000 people. After successful tours of Australia, Europe two American tours and several UK tours, he is now hitting the road in 2014 with a brand new look show.

The great news for fans and lovers of theatrical live music shows in and around Edinburgh, is that Adam will be appearing at The Liquid Room on Thursday 3 April 2014 and the promoters promise that it will be a 'fantastic experience and night to remember'!

The tour is titled XII B.D (12 dates before Dirk) and Adam will be performing some select songs from his seminal album "Dirk Wears White Sox", as well as other favourites.

Don't miss out on seeing Adam Ant + The Good The Mad & The Lovely Posse, at The Liquid Room on Thursday 3 April

The venue is located at 9C Victoria Street, EH1 2HE

Advance tickets are £23.50 and to book, call 0131 226 7010 or 0131 220 3234 or go online here.

Doors open at 7 p.m. and the show starts at 7.30 p.m.