

Learn how to be creative with your iPad at Craigroyston

Craigroyston Community High School is running four sessions to show you how to create art with your iPad.

Local artist Kate Downie is running these and the places are already like gold dust. So if this is for you then get along to the Craigroyston Community High School website and book yourself in!

The sessions take place on 4 & 11 February, 25 February and 4 March 2014. There will be a break for the February school holiday and classes run from 6.30 till 8.30 pm.

More information here.