

Police name South Queensferry couple

Police have now confirmed the identities of the two people, who were found dead in a house in South Queensferry on Sunday evening (February, 23, 2014).

They were named as Kenneth (52) and Donna (51) Graham, of 48 Echline Gardens, South Queensferry.

Their daughters Laura and Lisa have issued the following statement through Police Scotland: "We are all devastated and shocked with what's happened. We can't explain how we are feeling and just want private space to try and come to terms with the shock. Our parents were the most loving, caring couple and the shock of their deaths alone is too hard to come to terms with."
