

Five things you need to know today Edinburgh!

Swishing for Charity – Singing Mozart – Pentlands Neighbourhood Partnership Advertising with The Edinburgh Reporter – Book Reviews

***

Four student singers from Heriot-Watt will be in the choir performing Mozart's Requiem on 29 March 2014 at St Mary's Cathedral Palmerston Place.

More details here.

***

***

We exist on advertising and sponsorship alone. If you like what we do then perhaps you could give us a small donation to help us keep going? You can use the Donate button below. THANK YOU!

Donate

We also have very reasonably priced advertising which can cost as little as £20. All details on our advertising packages are here but for £20 you get an advert as big as you like until you have had 1000 views. We would love to have your advert scattered around our site – remember our readers are your new customers....

***

Now you can add your book, music and film reviews to the Council's Library catalogue.

Read more about how to do it here.

The Edinburgh Reporter is actively looking for people who can write book, film and music reviews. Get in touch if you would like to be involved! We will be opening our Festival and Fringe reviewer list soon so if that is something you might like to do then we would like to hear from you. Email theedinburghreporter@gmail.com