Man in court following Corstorphine bank robbery

A man has been arrested and charged following a robbery at the Royal Bank of Scotland on St John's Road.

The incident happened at 09.30 on Monday 3rd March.

Afterwards detectives revealed that they were speaking to taxi companies in an effort to trace witnesses.

The 44-year-old is scheduled to appear at Edinburgh Sheriff Court today.