

Rock Trust challenge you to a Munro

Former homeless teen David Middleton led a team from homeless charity the Rock Trust to launch the Rock Trust Munro Challenge in Edinburgh's Holyrood Park yesterday.

David, aged 19, found himself homeless at the age of 17, and will be leading out part of the walking charity challenge up all 283 of Scotland's Munros on 21st and 22nd June 2014.

Fundraising for the event starts next month.

Pictured with David (holding flag, far right in red top) are: Rock Trust events and fundraising coordinator Katriona Harding, John Laurie director of participating organisation Burn It Fitness), Beccs Lee (correct, Rock Trust administrator) and Kate Polson, Chief Executive of the Rock Trust.
