

Teenager in court after fatal collision in East Lothian

A teenager is due to appear at Haddington Sheriff Court today in connection with a crash that killed three of his friends in November last year.

Jenna Barbour, 18, Josh Stewart, 16, and 15-year-old David Armstrong, all from Dunbar, died in the collision at Tyninghame, East Lothian, on November 25.

Josh and David were in their fifth year at Dunbar Grammar School, while Miss Barbour had left the school in the summer.
