

Family Tribute to Ian Smollet

The family of Ian Smollet, who died following a collision on the M8 on Thursday 10th April have paid tribute to him.

In a statement release through Police Scotland they said: “Ian was a caring and loving husband, an amazing dad and will be missed immensely.

“We would ask that the media respect our privacy at this difficult time and allow us to grieve in private.”