

Five things you need to know today Edinburgh!

The Edinburgh International Science Festival – Advice for football fans this weekend – Last chance to go behind the Hidden Door – Noah – Fun fair at Ocean Terminal

✘ The Edinburgh Reporter is off to have a word with Yang Guang and Tian Tian this morning at Edinburgh Zoo. In what has become an annual media frenzy the zoo is keen for the Giant Pandas to mate and have a baby panda. Watch this space.

Meantime while you are waiting for that to happen you can take the children to The Edinburgh International Science Festival. There are also adult only evenings. We were at the opening party last night and made a norovirus. NHS Lothian came back with the best reply....

@EdinReporter very nice, but please keep it away from our hospitals.. ☐ <http://t.co/50HnGu9uHb>

– NHS Lothian (@NHS_Lothian) April 3, 2014

This weekend there will be thousands of football fans going to the Ramsdens Cup final at Easter Road. Chief Superintendent Mark Williams has this advice for fans:-

Hidden Door Festival has been delighting audiences all week (see our photo today for the contents one of the vaults) and this is now your last chance to go along and have a look at all the different exhibits on view in the vaults in Market Street. This is our preview video which will give you a taste of what you might see or hear.

We were delighted that Russell Crowe jetted into Edinburgh last week to introduce the fans' premiere of Noah. We were even more delighted when he spoke to The Edinburgh Reporter!

listen to 'The Edinburgh Reporter interviews Russell Crowe' on Audioboo

The film opens today – here is the trailer.

 Ocean Terminal have a fun fair for the Easter holidays! from Friday 4th – Saturday 12th April 1pm – 8.30pm daily

All rides £1.50 (excluding bomber)

Wednesday 9th April – Unlimited ride wristband only £9.99 (height restrictions apply: Above 1.2m). Session Times: 1pm – 4.30pm & 5pm – 8.30pm

Come along on Saturday 5th & Sunday 6th April, 1pm – 5pm, to see your favourite look-a-like character including Buzz Lightyear & Woody from Toy Story and Hello Kitty!