Cabinet Secretary for Education Michael Russell, laid a section of concrete at the new main teaching block for the rebuild project at James Gillespie's High School on Whitehouse Loan this morning.

City of Edinburgh Council Education Convener Cllr Paul Godzik, local MSP Jim Eadie and Councillor Cathy Fullerton were also present to witness the next stage in the building project.

The high school rebuild is part of the unique James Gillespie's Campus Project. This will include new buildings being constructed across the whole campus which serves pupils aged from 3 to 18 years in nursery, primary and high schools all on the same site.
