

Film in the City today

Get your picnic together and get along to Film in the City in St Andrew Square today. Here's what's on:-

SATURDAY 14 JUNE

11am

Screen live

Advertising / Promos & Trailers

11.30am – 12.45pm

Secret of Kell (PG) (75mins)

Advertising / Promos & Trailers

A delightful animation of Irish mythology and vikings unfolds in a charming tale.

1pm – 2.40pm

How to Train Your Dragon (U) (98mins)

The kids (and indeed the grown-ups) will love this great Dreamworks animation.

Advertising / Promos & Trailers

3pm – 4.20pm

Metropolis (PG) (80mins)

Advertising / Promos & Trailers

This screening coincides with the EIFF's Focus on germany. Enjoy this superb re-working of Giorgio Moroder's classic film.

4.45pm – 6.35pm

Local Hero (PG) (111mins)

Advertising / Promos & Trailers

Another feel-good movie celebrating the best of Scottish filmmaking. Bill Forsyth's story tells the tale of an evil oil executive who is won over by our beautiful bonnie Scotland.

7pm – 8.40pm

Juno (12) (96mins)

Advertising / Promos & Trailers

A comedy-drama which helped shoot Ellen Page into movie stardom. Jason Reitman's comedy drama introduces us to the power of the teen flick and is a must for fans of EIFF's American Dreams strand.

9pm – 10.50pm

Rocky (12) (112mins)

Be inspired by this great sporting movie which sees Rockie Balboa seek success in the boxing ring. A great rags to riches story.

More details here.