

Hibs announce pre-season fixtures

Hibs have announced four pre-season friendly fixtures in the build-up to the 2014/15 Scottish Championship season.

With new Head Coach Alan Stubbs in charge, a Hibs XI head south to Innerleithen on Saturday 5 July, kick off 3pm to face Lowland League side Vale of Leithen.

Admission prices for this match at Victoria Park (click here for directions) is £7 for Adults and £3 for Concessions – it promises to be an enjoyable day down in the Borders as the club kicks off preparation work for the upcoming campaign.

The following weekend Hibs travel further south to face Scottish League Two side Berwick Rangers at Shielfield Park on Saturday 12 July, kick off 3pm.

The last time Hibs travelled down to Berwick was three years ago in a pre-season friendly which ended in a 3-0 win. Admission prices are £10 for Adults and £5 for Concessions (under-16s, students and over-65s).

Then Hibs head north across the Forth Road Bridge to face Scottish League One club Dunfermline Athletic in a friendly at East End Park on Tuesday 15 July, kick off 7.30pm.

The last time Hibs played in that part of Fife was a memorable 3-2 win in the SPL back in January 2012.

Admission prices for the pre-season friendly fixture at East End Park are £10 for Adults and £5 for Concessions.

Hibs then face Scottish League One club Stirling Albion at Forthbank Stadium on Sunday 20 July, kick off 2pm. Admission for this friendly match is £10 for Adults, £5 for Concessions (students, over-65s), under-17s are £2 while under-12s are free