

Midlothian looking forward to Summer of Sport

School holidays are almost upon us. The good news is with weeks of holidays stretching ahead, there's lots to do in Midlothian for children .

Midlothian Council's Summer of Sport starts in July and runs into August. But, you need to book soon as places can fill up fast.

Youngsters can choose from a sports and activities including: athletics, badminton, rugby, gymnastics and hockey.

This year also marks the return of the successful Midlothian Activity Camps and Midlothian Aquatics Camp. Midlothian Activity Camps are a week of fun- filled activity with opportunities to take part in two key sports. Children will be matched with children their own age and be coached at a level suited to that age.

Midlothian Aquatics Camps teach the basics of exciting water sports and fun activities such as aqua fun, diving, mini water polo, snorkelling and fun on the pool inflatable and floats.

Summer of Sport is the name for sports activity camps offered by Midlothian Council's sport and leisure department. To find out more visit www.midlothian.gov.uk/summerofsport
