

Twins and triplets get in for £1 at soft play centres

Every parent knows what it's like taking a young child on a fun outing, and for those with twins, triplets or more it can be double, triple or even quadruple the challenge.

That's why Edinburgh Leisure is celebrating Twins, Triplets & More Awareness (TAMBAS) Week with a limited-time-only £1 entry fee for multiples to its Scrambles and Tumbles soft play centres.

From 30th June – 6th July twins, triplets and higher multiples will only have to pay £1 each to enjoy an hour of soft play at either of these venues.

Scrambles at Edinburgh Indoor Climbing Arena (EICA) Ratho is a hugely popular soft play which draws inspiration from the world class climbing facility.

For under 5's there's the Rock Tots MEGA play café, offering a huge space with toys ideal for little ones to crawl, toddle and run around.

Tumbles at Portobello is a fantastic soft play based in the recently opened state-of-the-art Gymnastics facility. With comprehensive zoned areas for babies to 10 years old, Tumbles also allows kids to glimpse the exciting world of Gymnastics.

Parents and guardians of TAMBAS can also enjoy a well earned relax with quality coffee and tasty treats in Edinburgh Leisure's own Refresh Cafes while kids play.

Adam Cruttendon, Manager of EICA, said: "We are delighted to support the Twins and Multiple Births Association Awareness Week with this special offer at two of our much loved soft play centres.

“Edinburgh Leisure is committed to helping all kids discover a love of activity from a young age. It can be more challenging for families with twins and multiples to get out and about as everything is at least double the work and double the cost – so this week it will be even more affordable at Edinburgh Leisure. Parents and guardians can enjoy a well earned break in our cafes, and kids are just going to have an absolute ball.”

The national awareness week is run by the Twins and Multiple Births Association (TAMBA), a charity set up by parents of twins, triplets and higher multiples and interested professionals.

Edinburgh Leisure is offering every twin, triplet or multiple entry for £1 for each for 1 hour of softplay from Monday 30th – Sunday 6th July at Tumbles, Scrambles or Rock Tots. Siblings are normal price.

Edinburgh Leisure is a not-for-profit organisation which manages 30 venues on behalf of City of Edinburgh Council, providing the widest range of facilities and community based programmes across the capital.
