

Appeal to trace missing Craigmillar man

Police are appealing for information on the whereabouts of a 34 year old man who has been reported missing from the Craigmillar area of Edinburgh.

James Heron, who previously used the surname Robertson, was last seen near his home on Niddrie House Square on Tuesday 8th June around 1pm.

James is described as being white, 6ft tall, slim build, shaved hair and was last seen wearing a yellow t shirt and blue jeans.

Inspector Murray Tait said: "Police, along with his family, are getting increasingly concerned for James as he has failed to make contact with family or friends. He is also known to travel regularly to England and has previously been in both Sheffield and Bristol. Anyone who has information on his whereabouts is urged to contact police immediately."

Anyone who knows where James is or who has information that could assist should contact police on 101.
