

Body found at Torduff Reservoir

Following a search last night which started around teatime, a body has been found.

A Police Scotland spokesman has said this morning: "Police can confirm that a body has been recovered during a multi-agency search operation to trace a 14-year-old boy at the Torduff Reservoir.

"Efforts are underway to trace the boy's next of kin and inform them of the discovery."