

Boozy joins Ian Murray at Dumbarton

Former Hibs' favourite Guillaume Beuzelin will join Ian Murray at Dumbarton replacing Hearts bound Jack Ross.

The 35-year old Frenchman, who has been coaching at Easter Road youth academy as well as the SFA, is likely to be in the dugout for today's friendly against Edinburgh City.

Hibs' fans have taken to social media to wish the popular midfielder well and many believe that this could be a future 'dream team' at Easter Road.

Murray yesterday told the club website: "Guillaume will be at Ainslie Park tomorrow so that we can have a smooth handover with Jack and it'll be an opportunity for him to get to know the lads.

"He'll officially come on board in the next seven days once all the paperwork has been sorted."

'Boozy' started his career at Le Havre – the town of his birth – in 1999 and joined Hibs under Tony Mowbray in 2004. He played in the 2007 League cup win against Kilmarnock.

He holds an UEFA B licence (working towards his A licence) and is qualified at SFA Youth level 5.
