

Edinburgh Festival Fringe – Morgan Berry, 24 hour Pet Bereavement Counsellor

PBH Free Fringe from 2nd- 24th August, every evening at 6pm. The venue is the Banshee Labyrinth, Cinema Room, 29-35 Niddry Street.

Born in Barnsley, raised in Africa- Bafrican! Morgan Berry is the world's first 24 hour Pet Bereavement Counsellor. He will be offering live healing for those people who have lost their beloved furry pals. But be warned, if you've lost a dog, a cat, a horse- he can't help you- you should have lost a rabbit!

After returning from Botswana where he grew up Morgan has returned back to his birth place of Barnsley to fulfil his lifelong ambition of owning a car wash and helping the people of Great Britain get over their rabbit bereavement issues.

Morgan Berry is the character creation of award winning comedian Joe Rowntree: Joe is a stand-up comedian, actor, writer and presenter. His television career started back in 2001 writing put-downs for Anne Robinson on "The Weakest Link". He has hosted 2 UK tours of "Brainiac Live" which culminated at the Hammersmith Apollo after appearing in all six series of the award-winning hit Sky 1 show "Brainiac: Science Abuse." He has supported Rhod Gilbert & Stephen K Amos on their national tours and recently recorded "Dave's One Night Stand" (Dave).
