Following last year's reviews The LipSinkers return to Edinburgh as part of PBH's Free Fringe for One Week Only, bringing the noble art of lip-syncing bang up to date with a razor sharp edge, where choreographed comedy meets biting satire with big hair and high heels.

The LipSinkers have a been at the heart of London's alternative cabaret scene for the last ten years, currently resident at The Royal Vauxhall Tavern with monthly sellout shows and previously resident at seminal East London venue Bistrottheque alongside Jonny Woo, Bourgeoisie & Maurice and Scottee. They are also known for their regular on-going collaborations with club nights as diverse as Duckie and Guilty Pleasures.

Appearing Saturday 9th until Saturday 16th August at 10pm nightly. FREE ENTRY.
