

Loch Tay body identified as missing canoeist Darren Gilpin

Police have confirmed that the body recovered from Loch Tay is that of missing Canoeist Darren Gilpin.

The 29-year-old had been out on the water in the Killin area on Saturday afternoon when his two-man boat capsized.

His friend made it ashore and raised the alarm and a police operation was then launched to trace Mr Gilpin before his body was recovered on Sunday evening.

There are no suspicious circumstances surrounding his death.

The Edinburgh reporter sends our condolences to Mr Gilpin's family and friends.
