

Missing man found in Edinburgh

☒ Police Scotland have confirmed that Gavin McIntyre who was reported missing yesterday has been found safe and well in Edinburgh.

Officers were looking for the 35-year-old from Haddington, who had not been seen since lunchtime on Monday 21st July.

Today, Gavin was traced in the city centre and Police Scotland would like to thank the public for their assistance.