

Missing woman found safe and well

Police Scotland has confirmed that missing woman Kirsty Heggie has been found safe and well.

Kirsty, who is 23-years-old and from the Leith area, had last been seen near Holyrood Palace on Sunday morning.

She has now been located in Gullane in East Lothian and officers would like to thank the public for their considerable assistance.