

Police appeal for help to trace missing woman

Police in Edinburgh are appealing for information to help trace a woman reporting missing in the Capital.

Bobbi Hogg from Cadiz Street was last seen near her home at around 2m on Friday 25th July.

However, the 26-year-old has not been in contact with anyone since that time and concern is now growing for her wellbeing.

Anyone who can assist in locating Bobbi is asked to come forward.

She is described as white, 5ft 4 inches tall with a slim build, green eyes and dark brown medium-length hair. She was last seen wearing a black t-shirt, red baggy trousers and red socks.

Inspector Andy Gilhooley said: "No one has seen or heard from Bobbi since Friday and her friends are growingly increasingly worried.

"Anyone has seen Bobbi or has information that can help us establish here whereabouts is asked to contact police immediately.

"In addition, I would request that Bobbi get in touch with a loved one, a friend or with police to let us know that she is safe and well."

Those with information can contact Police Scotland on 101.
