

Police searching for missing Bonnyrigg man

✘ A man has been missing from his home in Bonnyrigg since Friday and Police in Midlothian continue to seek the help of the public in trying to trace him.

Andrew Durie was last seen at his home address in Pentland Road at around 10am on Friday 11th July, but has not been in contact with friends or family since then.

The 28-year-old is described as being of medium build, 6ft with blond hair. He was last seen wearing a blue and white Rangers zipped jacket and blue jeans.

A possible sighting of Andrew onboard a Number 21 Lothian bus was reported to police at around 2pm on Friday 18th July.

A male similar to Andrew's description was seen on the bus in the company of a female in Great Junction Street and enquiries are underway to progress this sighting.

Anyone who can assist in locating Andrew is asked to come forward.

A Police Scotland spokesman said: "It is now over a week since Andrew left his home in Bonnyrigg and we have been following a number of lines of enquiry to establish his current whereabouts.

"Anyone who believes they know Andrew's current location is asked to contact police immediately.

"In addition, passengers onboard the Number 21 bus on Friday and remember seeing the male and female are also asked to get in touch."

Those with information can contact Police Scotland on 101.
