

Buy the Good Stuff campaign launched today

"Buy The Good Stuff" is a call to action to the general public to consider how they shop around the city and can really make a difference by purchasing from social enterprises. Re-Union Canal Boats plays host today to the Monster branding for the campaign.
