

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2014 – Frank Sinatra the Final Curtain

✘ Kingdom Theatre acknowledge and thanks Major Mark Aldridge, Director of Music in the band of the Royal Armour Corp for allowing Moray Innes to join them at short notice.

“During our July rehearsal period the person cast as Frank had to withdraw due to work commitments. This left a dilemma with 20 shows in a city centre large venue all booked and tickets on sale. Moray had played the part in the 2013 production but had since joined the army so was initially ruled out until an approach for special leave was made to save the production. His return has been triumphant with standing ovations and some great reviews.”
