

Edinburgh Festival Fringe – Red Tap Blue Tiger

☒ Norton is 21 today. Two hours ago, his mother revealed his abusive Dad is not his biological father. Norton flew into a rage, knocked out his mother and sent his brother into a terminal coma. Now he's on the run, hunting his real father, because Norton needs to talk. Norton needs the truth before he ends up killing someone ... again. Red Tap/Blue Tiger is a jet black comedy about fatherhood, growing up and Smoky Bacon crisps.

Scottish Daily Mail Drama Award 2014.

They have a promotional video which you can watch below.
Ticket details here.

If you would like to send a review for this or any of the shows you see at the Fringe then please use our EdinburghReportage Edinburgh Festivals storyboard here.

