

Edinburgh Rotaract welcomes new members

Edinburgh Rotaract will be inviting people to join them at their open evening, and they're hoping to see you there!

Edinburgh Rotaract is a community group made up of 18 – 30 year olds from across the city, who come together each week for a range of activities and a catch up.

Every two weeks a speaker is invited along to present at the club, including representatives from local charities. Recently this has included CHAS and the Bethany Christian Trust, who have been supported by Edinburgh Rotaract through their fundraising and volunteering activities including a sleep out at the spooky Mary King's Close.

Community groups are a great way to meet new people in your local area and Edinburgh Rotaract hold a range of social activities too. Over the last couple of months the club have been to Edinburgh Zoo Nights, Pitch and Putt on the Meadows, a tour of Stewart's Brewery and laser quest!

If you're interested in joining Edinburgh Rotaract go along to their Open Night, to learn more about what they do and who they are, on Monday 29 September at 7pm at The Kenilworth on Rose Street. There is more information available on Facebook, Twitter and on the website <http://www.edinburghrotaract.org.uk>.
