

Missing man now found safe and well

Police Scotland can confirm that a 66-year-old man reported missing from Edinburgh has been found safe and well.

Douglas McNaught, who lives in Saughton Mains Terrace and was reported missing from his home earlier today, was this afternoon traced by officers in Aberdeen.

Police Scotland would like to thank the public for their assistance.