

Scare yourself at The Edinburgh Dungeon this Halloween

As Halloween approaches, join The Edinburgh Dungeon as they extend their opening hours to ensure visitors don't miss out on a night full of tricks and treats at Scotland's top attraction for scary fun.

Warning BURKE IS BACK, The Edinburgh Dungeon will be taking visitors back in time as they unveil the horrors of one of the darkest periods in the capital's history as the Capital's most notorious criminals return to the Home of Halloween.

As historic hauntings go, the presence of the infamous Burke & Hare doesn't get more chilling. So be prepared as the murderous pair return to The Edinburgh Dungeon this October to mark the anniversary of their final killing – the Halloween Murder.

With plenty of thrills and frights guaranteed, The Dungeon will be open late on the 31 October and 1 November from 10am-10pm (with additional extended hours on 30 October and 2 November from 10am-6pm) so make sure you don't miss out!

For more information and tickets visit www.thedungeons.com/edinburgh.

