

CCTV appeal following serious assault on South Bridge

Police have today released CCTV images of a man they are keen to trace in relation to an investigation into a serious assault that occurred at around 3am on Sunday 21st September, near to the Pizza Paradise takeaway on South Bridge, Edinburgh.

Officers would like to speak to the man shown in the images as they believe that he may be able to assist their enquiries. He is described as a white male, 25 to 26 years, short dark brown straight hair, and medium build with a local accent.

Constable Iain Wallace, the Investigating Officer states "I would ask any member of the public who recognises this male to contact Police Scotland on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111."
