Dark Web activity — Man detained in Fountainbridge

A 24 year old was detained in the Fountainbridge area of Edinburgh yesterday, following a joint operation between Police Scotland and the National Crime Agency to target those who use the 'dark web' to trade in illegal commodities.

The man has been released pending further enquiry but Police in Edinburgh are continuing their investigation into illegal activities