

Police warning after Calton Hill robberies

Police in Edinburgh have warned people to take care in the Calton Hill area of the City following two men being assaulted and robbed in similar circumstances over the last week.

One of the men was a tourist who was punched in the face and had his mobile phone and wallet stolen in the incident, the other man was knocked to the ground and robbed.

Both incidents happened in the early hours of the morning on Wednesday and Friday this week.