

TERLive! Follow Edinburgh Council's Budget Question Time

The council are running a live event at the City Chambers tonight. You can follow proceedings live on line by clicking here (or using the watch again feature if you have missed it) but at the same time this page will update automatically with all the comments from social media.

We are sure you will have something to say about how the council use their budget over the next financial year from 2014 to 2015. The council has to make some savings but they have said that Edinburgh Leisure will not face any closures, and they are proceeding with new school building as normal.

So what does it really mean for Edinburgh?

You may find out here this evening from 7:00pm. Use the hashtag #edinbudget for your tweets or Instagram posts to be included here.