

All aboard for Disability Access Day

Euan MacDonald co-founder of online disability access guide “Euan’s Guide” launched the first ever Disability Access Day aboard the Royal Yacht Britannia moored in Edinburgh’s Leith Docks beside the Ocean Terminal shopping centre, a tourism initiative from VisitScotland.

With him today were his sister and Euan’s Guide co-founder Kiki MacDonald with volunteers and service users of Hearing Dogs for Deaf People, Guide Dogs Scotland and Canine Partners and their assistance dogs.

Euan was diagnosed with motor neurone disease in 2003.
