

Callum Booth joins Partick Thistle on loan

Hibs' defender Callum Booth has joined Partick Thistle on loan until the end of the 2014/15 season.

Academy graduate Booth, 23, has recorded 12 appearances so far this season and has scored one goal.

The versatile full back has played at both left and right back this season, deputising for injured David Gray.

This will be fifth loan move in his career – his previous loan spells have been with Arbroath, Brechin City, Livingston and Raith Rovers
