

Five things you need to know today

feith Decides

Pilates in Edinburgh

Edinburgh Tenants Federation meeting today

Great Edinburgh Run

Disabled Access Day

The local funding programme feith Decides has an exhibition at McDonald Road Library and Leith Library from today to help you make up your mind who to vote for. To have a vote you must either live, work or study in Leith.

The decision making event when all 40 applications will be considered takes place on 7 February 2015 at Leith Community Education Centre, New Kirkgate.

12.30 pm – Registration opens

1.00 pm – 3.00 pm – Marketplace of projects. Visit the stalls, find out about the choice of projects and give them all a score.

Everyone, 8 years of age and over, who lives, works, volunteers or studies in the Leith Neighbourhood Partnership area is eligible to take part in the decision-making.

feith Decides Facebook page is here.

Post by Realistic Pilates.

Post by Edinburgh Tenants Federation.

Team Scotland athletes Callum and Derek Hawkins were at the Grassmarket in Edinburgh during the week to launch the 2015 Morrisons Great Edinburgh Run with a little help from STV Edinburgh.

The Morrisons Great Edinburgh Run will return to the capital on Sunday 19 April with the ten mile route introduced last year and for the first time will feature the Morrisons Great Edinburgh Run Team Relay.

The new Team Relay event will allow teams of two to complete the ten mile course between them. The first section of the course will cover approximately 4.75 miles of hilly terrain and the second section will follow a gentler 5.25 mile route, including a downhill final mile. Both full ten mile runners and Team Relay runners will start and finish at Holyrood Park, with the Grassmarket hosting the Team Relay changeover point.

More details here.

Today is Disabled Access Day. It is all about getting out and visiting a venue that you've never been to before – whether a cinema, coffee shop, sports centre or anywhere else. The flagship event will be taking place on the Royal Yacht Britannia and at Ocean Terminal in Edinburgh, where visitors can get discounted entry, try an accessible bus and meet assistance dogs & learn about the work they do.

You can also visit the Scottish Parliament building which will be offering public guided tours from 10.30 am.

“The Scottish Parliament extends an especially warm welcome to disabled visitors on Disabled Access Day. Additional tours have been arranged and special offers are available in the gift shop and cafe. There is also a chance to learn more about the ways in which the Scottish Parliament is accessible to disabled visitors.”

More information on the website here