

Jake Sinclair returns to Southampton after Hibs' loan spell

Jake Sinclair's loan stay at Hibs has ended and the player has returned to Southampton.

The 20-year-old moved north to Easter Road in late August and made his Hibs' debut against Cowdenbeath in September – making three first team appearances in total.

Head Coach Alan Stubbs thanked Sinclair for his contribution and professionalism and wished the player all the best for the future.

Stubbs told the club website: "I'd like to thank Jake and wish him all the best for the next stage in his career and I'd also like to thank Southampton for allowing us to take him here on loan."
