

Concern for missing Edinburgh man

Police are appealing for information to trace a man missing from the Portobello area.

Harry Allan, who is 46 years old, has been reported missing from the High Street, Portobello. He has not been seen for a month and his family are growing increasingly concerned for his welfare.

Harry is described as white, medium build and average height, with scruffy greying hair, deep set blue eyes, bushy eyebrows and clean shaven.

Inspector Nick Young said: "Given that Harry has not been seen for a month we are growing more concerned for his welfare and anyone with any information than can assist in our search is urged to contact Police Scotland on 101."
