

Patient tests negative for Ebola

✘ NHS Lothian have announced that the patient admitted to the Regional Infectious Diseases Unit at the Western General Hospital earlier today has tested negative for Ebola.

A spokesman said: "We have robust systems in place to manage patients with suspected infectious diseases and staff follow tested national guidelines."