

Renewed appeal to trace missing teenager

Police are still appealing for information to help trace a 15-year-old boy reported missing from the Gracemount area.

Thomas Wilson was last seen on Friday, February 13, at around 6pm, walking towards Cameron Toll.

The teenager has links to the Drylaw area of Edinburgh and may have made his way towards there. He also has links to the Niddrie/Craigmillar area.

Officers are urging anyone who can assist with their enquiries to come forward.

Thomas is described as white, 5ft 6inches tall with a medium build and short dark brown hair. He was last seen wearing a grey hooded top with a blue logo, grey tracksuit trousers, a white t-shirt and a silver watch.

Inspector Euan Smith said: "We are still concerned for Thomas's welfare and urge anyone who thinks they may have seen him to contact us."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Police Scotland as soon as possible on 101
