

Rugby – Russell Cited for Dangerous Tackle

Finn Russell, Scotland's fly-half, has been cited by an independent Citing Commissioner for a dangerous tackle – for which the player was yellow-carded – in the 30th minute of the RBS 6 Nations match between Scotland and Wales on Sunday.

The player's hearing, before an independent Six Nations Disciplinary Committee of three, will be held later this week.

Notes:

The independent Citing Commissioner for the match was Eugene Ryan (Ireland)

Law 10.4(e)

Dangerous tackling.

A player must not tackle an opponent whose feet are off the ground.

Law 10.4(j)

Lifting a player from the ground and dropping or driving that player into the ground whilst that player's feet are still off the ground such that the player's head and/or upper body come into contact with the ground is dangerous play.

And if anyone is still brave enough to watch some of the match again –
