

SNP fundraising for Marie Curie

The SNP group at the City of Edinburgh Council were fundraising today in memory of the late Tom Buchanan who died almost two years ago.

Councillor Buchanan was the Economic Development Convener who worked particularly on the city's Strategy for Jobs initiative during his six years on the council.

Tom stayed at the Marie Curie Hospice at Fairmilehead during his illness.

SNP Group Leader Sandy Howat and Councillor Cathy Fullerton ready to raise money!