

Travel advice for Hibs' fans heading to Kirkcaldy tomorrow

Hibs' Supporters travelling to the Scottish Championship match at Starks Park, Pratt Street, Kirkcaldy (KY1 1SA) tomorrow will occupy the North Stand (McDermid) at the stadium with turnstiles opening at 2pm.

Tickets will remain on sale at the Hibernian Ticket Office until Saturday afternoon (2pm), supporters will also be able to purchase a ticket at the turnstiles on match day but should be aware that they are purchasing a ticket for an allocated seat.

Supporters coaches should park within the Beveridge Car Park with an overspill facility at the west end of the esplanade.

Car parking is also available at Beveridge Park car park and at Kirkcaldy railway station, although spaces in the latter are likely to be limited. There is significant parking available around the stadium away from the restricted area and fans are reminded that Pratt Street will be closed to traffic at 2.30pm in the interests of safety.

At the present time there are no roadworks on the M90 motorway between Newbridge and the A92 regional road nor in the vicinity of Starks Park, for up to date travel information fans should visit the Traffic Scotland website or follow on Twitter @trafficscotland.