

Edinburgh College of Art fashion show gets the 'Downton' factor

At the end of next week the Edinburgh College of Art stage their catwalk show at the Sculpture Court in the college.

One of their performance costume graduates will speak of her experiences as a designer for the award-winning period drama Downton Abbey as part of the show on Saturday 25 April.

✘ Anna Robbins, who graduated from ECA in 2005, will address the audience at a post-event talk on Saturday evening.

The talk will take place after graduating students in Fashion, Performance Costume and Textiles showcase their cutting-edge creations in a catwalk show with choreographed routines, all set to a soundtrack chosen by the students.

This year's vibrant and varied work has been influenced by fairytales, family photographs and space-age holidays.
